

NEVER ask for your score.

NEVER ask how many you have right/wrong.

On interruption re-reads, only hit it if you ALREADY know the answer.
(Intentionally break this rule even once, and you will be barred from ever getting another re-read!)

ALWAYS count one-thousand-one, one-thousand-two before hitting re-reads.

Prefer your brother/sister.

No one will be rewarded for individual performance...we are a TEAM!

If the team makes 140 points, ALL will be rewarded.

If the team fails to make 140 points, NONE will be rewarded.

On 2-part questions, NEVER interrupt before the first question followed by a key word.

On 3+-part questions, NEVER interrupt before the second question (exception if it is a short verse).

Do not hit direct questions before it is obvious where the question is going.

OBEY!
