

BQTournament License Activation Guide

BQTournament 2023 has expired. You may uninstall it; at a minimum remove bqt2023 from your desktop so that you do not accidentally try to run it.

Install the latest BQTournament from Temporarily turn off your firewall and virus software. After license activation, turn them back on. Google how to do this for your particular protection software, since they vary greatly.

Some orderIDs have “ones”, “ells”, and capital “eyes” that look alike. To ensure you are entering the correct orderID, use right-click copy and paste instead of typing it in.

The latest BQTournament (as of January 4th) has detailed error messaging. If license activation is unsuccessful, you will receive instructions with what data to send to info@upcquiz.com.
